

Can You Prove It?

Step 1: The Clues

Ancient Egyptians filled King Tut's tomb with things he might need in the afterlife. The box below lists some of them. They give us clues about life in ancient Egypt.

A. bows and arrows	C. fancy clothes and jewels	E. pictures of the king and queen
B. boxes of meat	D. pens and ink	F. shields

Step 2: The Conclusions

Studying Tut's tomb has given people various ideas about Egypt. The left column lists some of them. In the right column, put the letters of any tomb items that help prove that conclusion. You may use letters more than once.

Conclusion	Clues to Help Prove It
1. Ancient Egyptians believed they would need food in the afterlife.
2. Ancient Egyptians had a form of writing.
3. Art and beautiful objects were important in Egyptian culture.
4. King Tut was married.
5. King Tut was very wealthy.
6. The pharaoh, or king, was trained to be a warrior.	