

COMPREHENSION CHECK

Name: _____

Egyptian Errors

Read "King Tut" in the September 2005 issue of NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC EXPLORER. Then look at the sentences below. Circle the error in each sentence. Then, on the line, write the word or number that would make the sentence right.

1. Author Zahi Hawass is a biologist. _____
2. King Tut was a ruler in ancient Rome. _____
3. Tut was 40 years old when he died. _____
4. Hawass and other scientists used a stethoscope to examine the pharaoh's remains. _____
5. The new images showed a break in King Tut's left arm. _____
6. King Tut was buried in the Valley of the Lions. _____
7. Ancient Egypt was a poor society. _____
8. King Tut had weak bones. _____
9. King Tut's mummy showed many signs of violent death. _____
10. Scientists took King Tut out of his coffin in the 1820s. _____